Aetna Term Life Insurance Plan

Protection for those who depend on you

Could your loved ones afford to pay for a funeral? Could they pay everyday living expenses or pay off debts upon your death?

Life insurance provides your loved ones with money they can use to help do things like:

- Pay off debts and funeral costs
- Pay the monthly rent or mortgage
- Create a savings fund for education or retirement

Even young, single adults may need life insurance to help family members deal with expenses.

Are you and your family ready?

Now you can be ready with affordable term life insurance that includes these great benefits:

- Flexible options to cover just you or your entire family.
- No health questions.
- Easy payroll deduction.

How the plan works:

The beneficiary you choose will receive a lump sum payment upon your death.

Exclusions and limitations

This plan has exclusions and limitations. Members should refer to their booklet-certificate to determine which services are covered and to what extent. The following is a partial list of services and supplies that are generally not covered. However, your plan may contain exceptions to this list based on state mandates or the plan design purchased.

Term Life exclusions:

- An intentionally self-inflicted injury.

Please note that benefits are reduced by 50 percent when you reach age 70.
